

Options for Disposal

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Bob Colvin Ash Trading Corp Paper and Book Recycling 77 North Broadway Menands, NY 12204 Phone: 518.463.6666 Cell: 518.466.0794 www.AshTradingCorp.com | “If it’s paper, we take it.” Will provide a receptacle for the discards. |
| Bookcycler 1843 Central Avenue (in the UPS store) Albany, New York Phone: 518.275.9942 or 518.452.7877 www.bookcycler.org | “BookCycler picks up, boxes and sells the books, gives you a full report, and pays you 50% of the book’s selling price (minus actual costs).” What they want: Hard-cover and trade (good quality) paper-backs, older books, author signed, first editions They don’t want: encyclopedias, magazines or mass market paperbacks Remove library marking if you can do so without damaging the item. |
| Better World Books 1105 Lakewood Pkwy Ste 205 Alpharetta, Georgia 30009 reusefirst@betterworldbooks.com | Info on what they accept / do not accept: http://www.betterworldbooks.com/Info-Discards-Donations-Program-m-4.aspx Do not remove any library treatments. |
| GreenFiber Amsterdam, NY 518-842-1470 www.greenfiber.com contact: Kelli Driessen kelli.driessen@greenfiber.com | Remove mylar covers from books. Items are recycled and made into housing insulation. |