I. Review Volunteer of the Year Nominations

Discussion regarding the four nominations. Consensus that Ms. Margaret Pine of the Cheney Library should be presented the Award, after 25 years of commitment to her community and library.

II. Review Trustee of the Year Nominations

Discussion regarding the five nominations. Consensus that Mr. Christopher Aldrich of the Guilderland Public Library should be selected to receive the Award because he has dedicated many years in various roles as a trustee of the library.

III. Review William Meredith Library Advocate Award Nomination

The Services Committee joined the Administration Committee to review the nomination from Bethlehem Public Library and agreed to present the Award to Jeremy Johannesen for his work advocating for libraries across New York State. The criteria was heavily considered and the committee members did not base this decision on age or solely on his paid position with NYLA – it was based on his enthusiasm and commitment to libraries on a local and statewide level, going above and beyond year after year.
